Steel Preferred One of the Strong Features in Grading-Grangers and Gould Stocks Strong.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 .- The two leading stocks at the opening of the stock market were Union Pacific and Steel preferred, each with a volume of 4,000 shares, the former unchanged, the latter at an advance ranging from 1/2 to 3/8.
All the fluctuations in the active list were limited to ¼ per cent. Then a de-cline occurred in Tennessee Coal and Iron, and a like advance was made by Atchison, Erie first, Steel common, Sugar, Rock Island, and Pacific Mail. Among the specialties Colorado and Southern Securities were conspicuously

Interest in the market this morning converged upon new features, namely, the Atchison stocks in which the pre-ferred advanced nearly 2 per cent and the common 1 per cent. The buying in this quarter was apparently based upon the popular credit given to yesterday's late reports that a large Union Pacific interest had accumulated an influential amount of Atchison stock. Union Pacific, however, ruled only steady at a trifle under last night's close. St. Paul, New York, Ontario & Western, Louisville & Nashville, the leading Gould stocks and Colorado & Southern issues were moderately strong features. As a rule, however, the changes in the railroad list were only moderate.

In the industrials United States Steel preferred was strong. Strength was shown by United States Leather preferred, Consolidated Gas and People's Agreement Agreement. Gas. In the local tractions Metropolitan Street Railway and Metropolitan Securities were weak, but Brooklyn Rapid Transit showed firmness. Government bonds unchanged, other bonds

OF STOCK MARKETS

Business on the local exchange today vas the dullest of the whole week. Traction stocks were quiet and rather weak. The only deals were ten shares 80% of Street Railway preferred, at 71%, and 75% 200 of the common, at 17. 65% Mergenthaler was heavy. Ten shares Mergenthaler was heavy. Ten shares sold at 182%, and 100 at 182.

Union Trust and Storage was strong, recording an advance of nearly two points, ten shares selling at 110.
The only business after call was the sale of $5,000 Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone bonds, at 104%.
A bi-monthly dividend of 30 cents per share, payable October 12, was declared today, at the meeting of the board of directors of the Greene Copper Company, in New York.

The executive committee of the Washington Bankers' Association will hold a meeting early next month and arrange a plan for the association's winter work. The question of true discount, the rule of certification of checks, and like topics are on the program for discussion among other subjects.

NEW YORK.

The news that the Union Pacific has brought a quarter interest in the Atchi-son Road is the principal item of the terest in the great West and Southwest territory, and contains many elements of interest to the optimistic trader. It also goes far to explain what has be-come of the enormous lot of Atchison stock which used to be so actively tradstock which used to be so actively taked in.

The London market is affected adversely by fear that the Tibetan treaty may result in strained relations between Great Britain and Russia. American stocks are generally somewhat below our parity.

Most of the active professionals are understood to hold merely a trading position on the market. One who was prominent yesterday on the long side of Union Pacific cleaned up on the long side of the market more than a week ago, and has since made at least one turn on the short side. There seems to be an absence of leadership in the room. The speculative situation became so confused toward the close of last week that it was deemed the part of prudence to abandon fixed positions for the time being and awalt developments. Speculative operations this week have been confined to a greater extent than formerly to simply a scalping basis.

Irrespective of the prominence in Union Pacific this week of operations undoubtedly of a purely speculative origin, it is insisted by persons whose information is usually trustworthy that important holdings both of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific have been steadily increased. It would seem, at any rate, that the floating supply of Union Pacific had not materially increased by the distribution supposed to have taken place above par on the last advance.

Sterling exchange was perhaps a little firmer yesterday than the day before; but the declining tendency of the exchange market is pronounced, and lower rates for sterling are generally looked for next week. This, while it does not mean that gold imports are near at hand, clearly means that a moderate rise in money rates here would bring gold from Europe if it was needed, and thus help to do away with the fear of a money stringency.
